Dillsburg Assembly of God Church Celebrates 50 Years

Dillsburg Assembly of God church is celebrating it's 50th anniversary. The pastor and congregation invite each of you to join with them as they celebrate their "Year of Jubilee," during the month of August 1990.

Opening their month of celebration August 5th thru August 12th with an old fashioned revival. Services each night, except Saturday at 7 p.m. with Evanglist and Mrs. A.R. Kennedy preaching the word and ministering in music.

A church reunion picnic will be held on Saturday August 18th at the Lower Allen Community Park. It will be a great joy getting together with family and friends of our 50 year history.

Sunday, August 19th, we will be privileged to have two of the former pastors of the church returning to speak. Reverend John Beamer, the first pastor will be speaking in the 10:45 a.m. service. And Reverend Ernest Simmers will be speaking and singing in the 7 p.m. service.

Kid'skursades Sunday, August 26th thru Wednesday, August 29th, nightly at 6:30 p.m. Captain Ken will be "pulling strings for Jesus" to conclude our month of "Jubilee".

Pet Portrait Fair

The Humane Society of Harrisburg Area, Inc. is sponsoring a Pet Portrait Fair at the East Shore Shelter, 7790 Grayson Road, Harrisburg, on Saturday, August 11, 1990 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Portraits will be taken by Frames N Stuff of Chambersburg, and the specially reduced cost for the complete packing, including a 5x7 and two 4x5 portraits, will be $14.99. Proceeds will benefit the Humane Society of Harrisburg Area, Inc. Interested parties should call the East Shore Shelter at 564-3320 to schedule an appointment for their pet's sitting.

The Pet Portrait Fair is the first such event planned by the Society, and additional Fairs are scheduled for September 8 at the Society's West Shore Shelter in Mechanicsburg and for September 29 at the Society's Cumberland Valley Shelter in Chambersburg. According to H. Clay Criswell, the Society's Executive Director, this event gives the Society the opportunity to raise additional operating funds in addition to providing pet owners with the opportunity to receive quality, professional portraits of their pets at a greatly reduced cost. All three Society shelters have pet portrait sample books for review by interested pet owners, who are encouraged to visit the shelters at their convenience during regular business hours to look at the display of pet portraits from Frames N'Stuff.

For more information on this, or upcoming, Pet Portrait Fairs, contact the Humane Society at 564-3320 or Frames N'Stuff at 267-7883.

Hunter and Trapper Course

The Pinchot Area Jaycees will have their annual Hunter and Trapper Education Course starting at 6 p.m. August 21, 1990, at the Jaycee Building (old Maytown Schoolhouse) located at the corner of Pinchot State Park, Route 177 and Alpine Road. Preregistration is required. Call Colin Wolfe at 432-8179 or John Orlinsk at 938-4933. There is a limit of 30 students for this class. The Pennsylvania Game Commission has set a minimum of 10 hours for each course. It is mandatory for all first-time hunters and trappers to have this course. In some states, it is required to take this Hunter/Trapper Education Course to purchase an out of state license.

Auditions for West Side Story

Pennsylvania Youth Music Theatre will hold auditions for West Side Story on August 23 at 7 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, 2000 Chestnut Street, Camp Hill, with callbacks August 24 at 7 p.m. at Milton Hershey School Senior Hall, Hershey. Those auditioning for a lead role should call 737-4261 to learn what songs to prepare. Others should prepare one verse of a song of their choice; an accompanist will be available. A short dance route will be taught during auditions. An intensive rehearsal period will take place between August 25 and Sept. 3, followed by weekend rehearsals through September at various locations on the East and West Shore. Youth between the ages of 14-25 are welcome to audition for this show which will be performed on October 4, 5, 6, and 7 at the Milton Hershey School Senior Hall. Pennsylvania Youth Music Theatre is a newly organized group dedicated to the development and training of youth in the performing arts. Many of the founders produced last year's successful Jesus Christ Superstar.

March of Dimes Third Annual Rubber Duck Regatta

The March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation will hold its Third Annual Rubber Duck Regatta Sunday, September 2. As part of the City of Harrisburg Kipona celebration, the rubber duck race raises funds for the Campaign for Healthier Babies.

Honorary Chairman Chuck Rhodes, WHTM TV 27, serves as official duck dumper, helping send numbered duck off to the finish line. With a goal of selling 3,000 ducks, three heats will be held with a final run-off to determine prize winners. Family Ford Mercury of Carlisle has donated a 1991 Ford Escort as top prize. Second includes 2 roundtrip airline tickets (continental U.s.) from Northwest Arlines and $300 spending money from Meridien Bank. A Baltimore getaway weekend sponsored by the Days Inn Inner Harbor and National Aquarium will be awarded to the third place finisher.

Entry costs $5.00; purchasers receive a souvenir duck and a numbered ticket. A correspondingly numbered duck will be entered in the race for each ticket purchased. Entrants need not be present to win.

For ticket outlet locations, readers may contact the March of Dimes at 1-800-533-9255. Zack Bond and Jackie Oliver, volunteer co-ticket chairs, plan to have at least ten sales locations, including Zembic's, top sales location last year. Special sales days include: August 8 and 15, Harrisburg Senator games; August 9, 10, 16 and 17, Strawberry Square, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.; August 11, Camp Hill Mall, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.; August 18, Colonial Park Mall, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.; and the Kipona Festival at Riverfront Park Labor Day weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharon and Barry Bargo Jr.

Yeagy and Bargo Wedding

The First United Methodist Church in Lewistown was the setting on June 2, 1990 for the wedding of Sharon Ann Yeagy and Barry Lynn Bargo Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Ralph and Lorraine Yeagy of Dillsburg. The groom is the son of Barry and Deborah Bargo of Lewistown.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Moose Lodge in Lewistown.

Maid of honor was Deb Denison, friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Beth Bargo, sister of the groom, Paula Denison, Holly Robson, and Cheryl Wagner, all friends of the bride. Flower girl was Angelina Rocco, cousin of the groom.

Best man was Scott Purnell, friend of the groom. Ushers were Steve Yeagy, brother of the bride, Chuck Zannino, cousin of the groom, Craig Bemesderfer and Darrin Donmoyer, both friends of the groom. Acolytes were Scott Yeagy, brother of the bride, and Andy Pollock, cousin of the groom. Ring bearer was Vincenzo Rocco, cousin of the groom.

The bride is a graduate of Northern York County High School and Shippensburg University. She is employed as a Research Technician for the National Cancer Institute at the Frederick Cancer Research Facility in Frederick, MD.

The groom is a graduate of Lewistown Area High School and Shippensburg University. He is employed as a Medical Claims Examiner for Claims Administration Corporation in Rockville, MD.

The couple took a wedding trip to St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands and will reside in Frederick, Md.

Met Rep Stages Local Premier of Zany Comedy

The Metropolitan Repertory Company will present the local premier of the Comedy "Greater Tuna" on August 10, 11, 12, 17, 18 and 19 at the Oyster Mill Playhouse, 1001 Oyster Mill Road in Camp Hill, Pa. Friday and Saturday performances begin at 8 p.m. and Sunday performances at 2 p.m. Tickets are $7.00 for adults and $4.00 for children 12 and under. Tickets can be ordered by telephone at any time. The telephone number is 737-6768. The box office will be staffed from 5:30-7:00 p.m. Monday through Saturday beginning on July 29th.

"Greater Tuna" is a hilarious comedy in which two actors play a total of twenty residents of the town of Greater Tuna, Texas. In Met Rep's production, these roles will be played by Rick Ansel of Mechanicsburg and Mike Knarr of Harisburg. Their wives, Julie Ansel and Teresa Knarr, will be in charge of the rapid backstage costume changes needed to transform Rick and Mike into an amazing variety of male and female, down-home Texans. Joyce Shuey of Mechanicsburg is in charge of creating the costumes.

"Greater Tuna" is being directed by Randy Furr of Etters. Randy also directed the sold out production, "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas" for Met Rep this spring. Paula MacDonald of Middletown is the Production Stage Manager.

For further information concerning "Greater Tuna", call the box office at 737-6768. Met Rep recommends you make your reservations early for what promises to be a very popular production.

Over 1,600 bikers traveled Chestnut Grove Road on their way to West Virginia last weekend during the MS 150 Bike Tour

Over 30 people from Dillsburg participate in MS-150

By Marie Chomicki

Mark Baumgardner, 28, of 35 Blair Mountain Road, Dillsburg, was the first to reach Harper's Ferry, West Virginia this past Sunday during this year's MS 150 Harper's Ferry Happening Bike Tour, reaching his destination a little before 10:30 a.m. on the second day.

Chris Brydon, 13, of 46 Pine Street, Dillsburg was one of the youngest bikers to complete the two-day tour.

Glenn and Tina Martin, of Martin's Bike Shop, 8 E. York Street, and helpers volunteered their services. They were positioned from 8:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. at the third rest stop on both days. Here they helped to repair hundreds of bikes, enabling the riders to continue on safely. Upon arrival at the first day's destination, Mount St. Mary's, they continued to repair bikes until dark, awaking at daybreak to finish.

Over thirty riders from Dillsburg and Wellsville participated including Mary Beth and Michael Hockenberry, Cynthia Benael, Richard and Christie Diller, Jack and Sue Peck, William Fertenbaugh, Randy Leer, Kristofer Plescewicz, Tom Neidig, Dan Miller, Keith Rosenberger, Elaine Mayhew, Kenneth Bordner, Margie Bordner, Aaron Sipe, David Righter, John Stampf, Andrew Caporale, Carol Aungst, Mark Baumgardner, Chris Brydon, Steven Sturr, Eric Engle, James Betz, Douglas Kirkland, Alan McCormick, Andrea Caporale, Lindsay Gingrich, Marie Chomicki and Sally Neifert.

Considered one of the top eight tours in the country according to the Bicycle Guide, over 1600 bikers participated, raising over $240,000 for Multiple Sclerosis.
